Bringing Great People Together

Angela Smith

Senior Recruitment Consultant

Angela has over twelve years' recruitment experience within the finance, accounting and legal professions in the UK and Australia including working for the largest financial and legal recruitment firm in London. Angela has been personally responsible for end-to-end recruitment for a broad range of clients including businesses in the resources, healthcare, retail, construction, engineering, agriculture, transport/logistics, financial services and insurance sectors.

Angela has enjoyed success in placing senior professionals and support staff. She is renowned for the advice she gives her clients and the results she gets from good old-fashioned hard work and a huge helping of experience and expertise. Angela has a passion for what she does and has lived and worked in Australia since 2011.

The majority of Angela's work within the legal industry comes from candidates who refer Angela to their new employer or peers and clients who regularly use Angela to fill legal positions.
